

Mandeville to host the Ozone Songwriter Festival on October 20 & 21

The Ozone Music Education Foundation announces the first annual Ozone Songwriter Festival on October 20th and 21st in Mandeville, La. The festival will spotlight over 72 local, regional and national songwriters while raising money for music youth education. The festival is free and open to people of all ages. The festival will be held at four venues all within walking distance from the Mandeville Trailhead. Music venues include the Old Rail, Lafitte St. Market, Mandeville Trailhead and the Trailhead Museum. Hot food, cold drinks and great music will be enjoyed starting at 12 pm on Saturday in the Mandeville Trailhead Museum and concluding on Sunday at 6pm. Saturday night's highlight will be the Hit-Songwriter concert at the Old Rail. Tickets to the special concert can be purchased at www.ozonemusic.org. Festival activities conclude on Sunday with a fan-favorite, the Songwriter's Contest. For a detailed schedule of times, locations and talent lineup go to www.ozonemusic.org.

"The City of Mandeville is pleased to welcome the Ozone Songwriter Music Festival to our city. The festival will expose visitors to our wonderful city as well as offer a free music festival highlighting original music from local and regional songwriters," states Mayor of Mandeville Donald Villere.

Volunteers are needed on Saturday and Sunday to help serve drinks, sell tickets and manage the venues. To volunteer email susan@ozonemusic.org.
