

City of Mandeville – 2025 Crime & Safety Update

Safety Snapshot: A Year in Review

Overall crime rates remain steady, thanks to the strong partnership between residents and the Mandeville Police Department.

By the Numbers: What Stood Out

- 18,307 service calls answered by our department
- Traffic concerns remain the #1 issue reported by residents
- Traffic accidents rose by 7%, while injury-related accidents fell by 15%
- 9,810 traffic enforcement actions taken (up from 9,417 in 2024)

Shoplifting reports rose this year, mainly due to improved detection and reporting by retailers.

Heads Up: Community Safety Alerts

Reports show teens riding bicycles recklessly and children operating golf carts unlawfully. These behaviors can lead to serious accidents. If you witness these activities, please contact the Mandeville Police Department immediately.

Your Role: Be the Eyes and Ears

Your vigilance matters! If you see suspicious activity or witness a crime, call (985) 626-9711 right away. Together, we can keep Mandeville safe, welcoming, and thriving. Thank you to our citizens, city leadership, and the dedicated professionals of the Mandeville Police Department for making safety a shared priority.

Safety Starts With You!
